Enclosure No.

I.G's docket No: 3763/114 of the 25th: December 1903returning with certain observations the T.A. bill of the Sreenivaspur Taluk Polic for May last amounting to Rs: 19.12.

Referring to the above, has the honor to state as follows:-

1. The acting Inspector travelled to Madanapally on the 21st: May 1903 to meet the Inspector of Police urgentl to exchange information anent border meetings of beats and the movements of itinerant Criminal gangs resident on the borders and to concert measus relating to the detection of pending heinous crimes and more particu... that of a case of dacoity which had occurred in the Taluk and of which hopes of detection were not distant. The causes for the expeditious journey undertaken have already been set forth in detail in this Office No: 129 of the 30th: November 1903.

2. Daffedar Mooniappa and constable Abdulla belonged to the Royalpod Station which is on the Madanapally boundary. They were aware of certain facts in the case referred to which went a great deal way for helping the case ~~referred~~ to if detection had ultimately followed. Hence they and constable Venkataramappa (the Inspector's orderly) had to accompany him.

In these circumstances it is requested that the T.A. bill under reference herewith returned may kindly be sanctioned.
